

United Fresh LIVE!

Community – Collaboration – Innovation

Going Live Week of June 15, 2020

United Fresh LIVE! is a response to an unprecedented challenge to our industry and our world.

Gold Sponsorship Opportunities

Thank you so much to our Gold sponsors! You are among the largest supporters of United Fresh LIVE! And, that means you are supporting ALL of the good work United Fresh Produce Association is able to do for our produce industry. Without you, we could not deliver the value that we've been bringing every day through the current crisis. So – thank you!

As a Gold Sponsor, we want to make your United Fresh LIVE! experience deliver a real ROI for you and your company. Would you please review the following options available to you as part of your sponsorship, and let us what you would like to include.

Ability to create a unique, personalized background for your online booth. In a simple process, you can create a photoshop image that we will have our service provider upload as the backdrop for your booth. When attendees click on you booth, they'll enter into an entirely branded booth space unlike any other on the platform.

- Yes, I would like to create a background image for my booth.
- No, I am happy to choose one of the three available booth templates.

Recorded presentation or video in a special sponsor section on United Fresh LIVE! website, available to users from June 15-September 1. You could post a conversation with your senior executives, present a slide show or content of value, or even provide a virtual tour of your facility.

- Yes, please work with me to schedule this event.
- No, we will pass on this opportunity.

Branding on United Fresh LIVE! Expo Landing Page where all attendees/users begin their exploration of the expo. Your logo can be a hotlink to your internal booth on our site, or to any external site you wish.

- Yes, please add my logo to the expo landing page and I will provide you a link.
- No, we will pass on this opportunity.

Sponsorship branding on one LIVE! workshop, coffee talk, community reception, happy hour or fitness session June 15-19.

- Yes, I would like to be a sponsor of one of these sessions.
- No, we will pass on this opportunity.

Going Live Week of June 15, 2020

United Fresh LIVE! is a response to an unprecedented challenge to our industry and our world.

Recognition in our “Show Daily” delivered by email each morning to all users registered on United Fresh LIVE!

- Yes, please add my logo in the Show Daily.
- No, we will pass on this opportunity.

Email promotion of your specific activity in your booth or through our site. United Fresh will push out one promotional email during the week of June 8-12, or during the LIVE week June 15-19, to all registered attendees promoting whatever you would like on our site. Examples of message you could consider include “join company ABC for a specific workshop,” or “join company XYZ in their booth at 2:00 pm for a live chat with their CEO.”

- Yes, please work with me on the specifics.
- No, we will pass on this opportunity.

Pre-Show email promotion of your company and/or products. Prior to June 15, United Fresh will push out two promotional emails where we can target specific lists of recipients with featured products and text you want included. We will also provide analytics on opens and clicks. This is an advertising opportunity similar to that provided by many media properties. See several examples below from similar media offerings.

- Yes, please work with me on the specifics.
- No, we will pass on this opportunity.
